THE TENANCY IN PLAIN WORDS

In this form "we" and "Mwavuli" mean Mwavuli Holdings Ltd, acting for the landlord, and "you" means the tenant.

1 Who we are

This tenancy is between the landlord and you. We act for the landlord: we collect the rent and look after the building.

2 Paying your rent

Pay your rent to us only, by mobile money or bank, never cash to our staff. Your rent is due on the day written above, each month, unless we move your due date (clause 12). Your month runs from one due date to the next. Pay to the mobile money number or the bank account below.

Bank _____

Account name _____

3 Your deposit

If you are a new tenant, your deposit is paid to us and kept in a separate account. We use it only for what this tenancy allows (unpaid rent, damage, legal costs), and the rest goes back to you.

If you were already living in the building, the landlord keeps the deposit already held (the amount is written above) and gives it back to you.

4 Rent paid ahead

If you pay rent ahead, we hold it in a separate account, like deposits, and pay it to the landlord month by month on the 1st. What we have not yet paid to the landlord stays there. When your tenancy ends, what is still held for the months that start after it goes back to you, with no fee, within 14 days of our visit to the unit (clause 10). What you still owe is taken from your deposit first, if we hold it, and then from this rent. A month that has started is paid in full.

5 If you do not pay

If you miss your due date, we remind you, call you and visit you, then send a written notice. Should the matter need to go to court, the case is brought in the landlord's name at their approval. Any late fee goes to us.

Late fee _____

When it applies _____

6 Repairs

Tell us by phone or WhatsApp if something is broken or unsafe, and we arrange a trusted contractor.

Phone or WhatsApp _____

You pay in full for damage you cause, as soon as the repairs are done. If you do not, it is taken from your deposit (clause 3).

7 Electricity, water and garbage

Your share is charged at cost, with no markup. We use the meter reading. If your unit has no meter, we agree a fair share or a fixed amount with you.

Meter number _____

Or share or amount agreed _____

8 Privacy

Landlord and tenant details are used only to manage the building and are not sold or shared otherwise.

9 If we disagree

We talk first, then a mediator we both accept, and only then the courts of Uganda.

10 When the tenancy ends

To leave, give us 30 days' notice by phone, SMS or WhatsApp, and we confirm it by message. Your tenancy ends on the day before a due date, at least 30 days after we get your notice, so your last month is always a whole month. If you leave without giving notice, you owe the rent until your tenancy would have ended, counted from the day we learn you have gone, and we take it from your deposit first, if we hold it. We visit the unit when your tenancy ends, or when we learn you have gone.

Notice the landlord gives _____

Your deposit goes back to you after any rent you still owe and the cost of any damage are taken from it. Rent you paid ahead for months you did not use goes back to you (clause 4).

11 If we stop acting for the landlord

We tell you. Rent you paid ahead for months that start after we stop goes to the landlord, who honors it, unless your tenancy has ended and clause 4 applies. You get a note saying the date your rent is paid up to. A deposit we hold goes to the landlord after any rent you still owe is taken from it, and the landlord gives it back to you when the tenancy ends.

12 Changing your due date

To keep our field work well organized, we may move your due date during the tenancy. We give you 30 days' notice, with the new date and the amount you pay, worked out as clause 13 says, and we update this form. The new date is then the day written above.

13 Part months

To work out a part month, we count every month as 30 days, so each day is one-thirtieth of your monthly rent, and we round what you pay for the days to the nearest UGX 1,000, with UGX 500 rounding up. When you move in, you pay for the days from your move-in date to your first due date. When your due date moves, you pay a share of your monthly rent (pro rata) for the days counted forward from your old due date to the new one. A month that has started is paid in full: if you leave part-way through it, the rest of it does not go back to you.
